

Aleksandra Stamper
(802) 881-8110 – aleksandra_stamper@brown.edu

EDUCATION

August 2023 – present	Doctoral student Brown University School of Public Health Department of Epidemiology Brown University, Providence, RI
August 2020 – May 2022	Master of Applied Science in Spatial Analysis for Public Health Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, MD
August 2014 – May 2018	Bachelor of Arts Majors: Anthropology, Biochemistry Smith College, Northampton, MA

WORK AND RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

August 2023 – present	Research Assistant Baker Lab, Department of Epidemiology Brown University, Providence, RI Leverage Susceptible-Infected-Recovered (SIR) models and fixed effects regression to investigate the impact of climate on influenza transmission and outbreak dynamics; use Python and R to query, process, and analyze high-dimensional climate, spatial, and infectious disease data
January 2021 – July 2023	Health Data Analyst University Health Service University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MA Synthesize, evaluate, and communicate regular data updates (e.g., operational metrics, communicable diseases, lab test results); query and report on a range of clinical, financial, and administrative processes and results; use R, Python, SQL, and Tableau for data mining, processing, visualization, and presentation
August 2018 – August 2020	Laboratory Specialist Thaler Center for HIV and Retrovirus Research University of Virginia Medical School, Charlottesville, VA Investigate the effects of a CRISPR Cas9 genetic knockout mutation in the mouse NXF1 gene; created and maintained data pertaining to the mouse colony; isolate and analyze RNA, DNA, and protein from transfected and infected cells; perform gel electrophoresis, Western blotting, PCR, and DNA and RNA sequence analysis; use R for data processing, visualization, and presentation

FELLOWSHIPS

August 2024 – January 2025	NASA Rhode Island Space Grant Consortium Role: NASA RI Space Grant Graduate Fellow $23,159
----------------------------	--

HONORS & AWARDS

April 2025	Travel Award , Brown University
------------	--

ORGANIZATIONS

2023 – present	Graduate student member, Institute at Brown for Environment and Society
2024 – present	Graduate student member, Brown Pandemic Center
